

HT FILMS RANGE

HT films from LEE Filters

STOCK UP NOW!

Due to supply problems with the base material polycarbonate, LEE Filters is no longer able to manufacture its HT range.

Using our warehouse stocks and the remaining stocks at LEE Filters, we are nevertheless still able to offer you the films. Take advantage of this opportunity and stock up while you can!

You'll find an overview of the remaining stocks still available on the following pages.

Request a price directly here using the online form – you will then receive an offer from your customer advisor.
